DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

LENS VS SPORTING CP

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2026

KICKOFF: 18:45 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

Watch the first pass after a turnover. Lens can make home pressure count by recovering the ball in useful areas; Sporting's response will be to escape that pressure and attack the space beyond it. The editorial draw reflects a contest that could turn on one clean transition.

EDITORIAL PICK:

Draw

PROJECTED SCORE:

Lens 1 : 1 Sporting CP

Score estimate, not a result.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

Arsenal receives the home lean. Watch how quickly the hosts move possession from one side to the other, and whether Lille can protect the central lanes without retreating too deep. The clean-sheet estimate depends on Arsenal keeping enough cover behind its attacks.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

ATLÉTICO MADRID VS MANCHESTER UNITED

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

One of Tuesday's main viewing choices. Watch the space around the penalty area and how both teams respond to an early goal. Atlético gets a narrow home lean, but United's route into the game is to turn recoveries into direct attacks before the defensive shape is restored.

EDITORIAL PICK:
Atlético Madrid

PROJECTED SCORE:
Atlético Madrid 2 : 1 Manchester United

Score estimate, not a result.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

INTER VS CLUB BRUGGE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

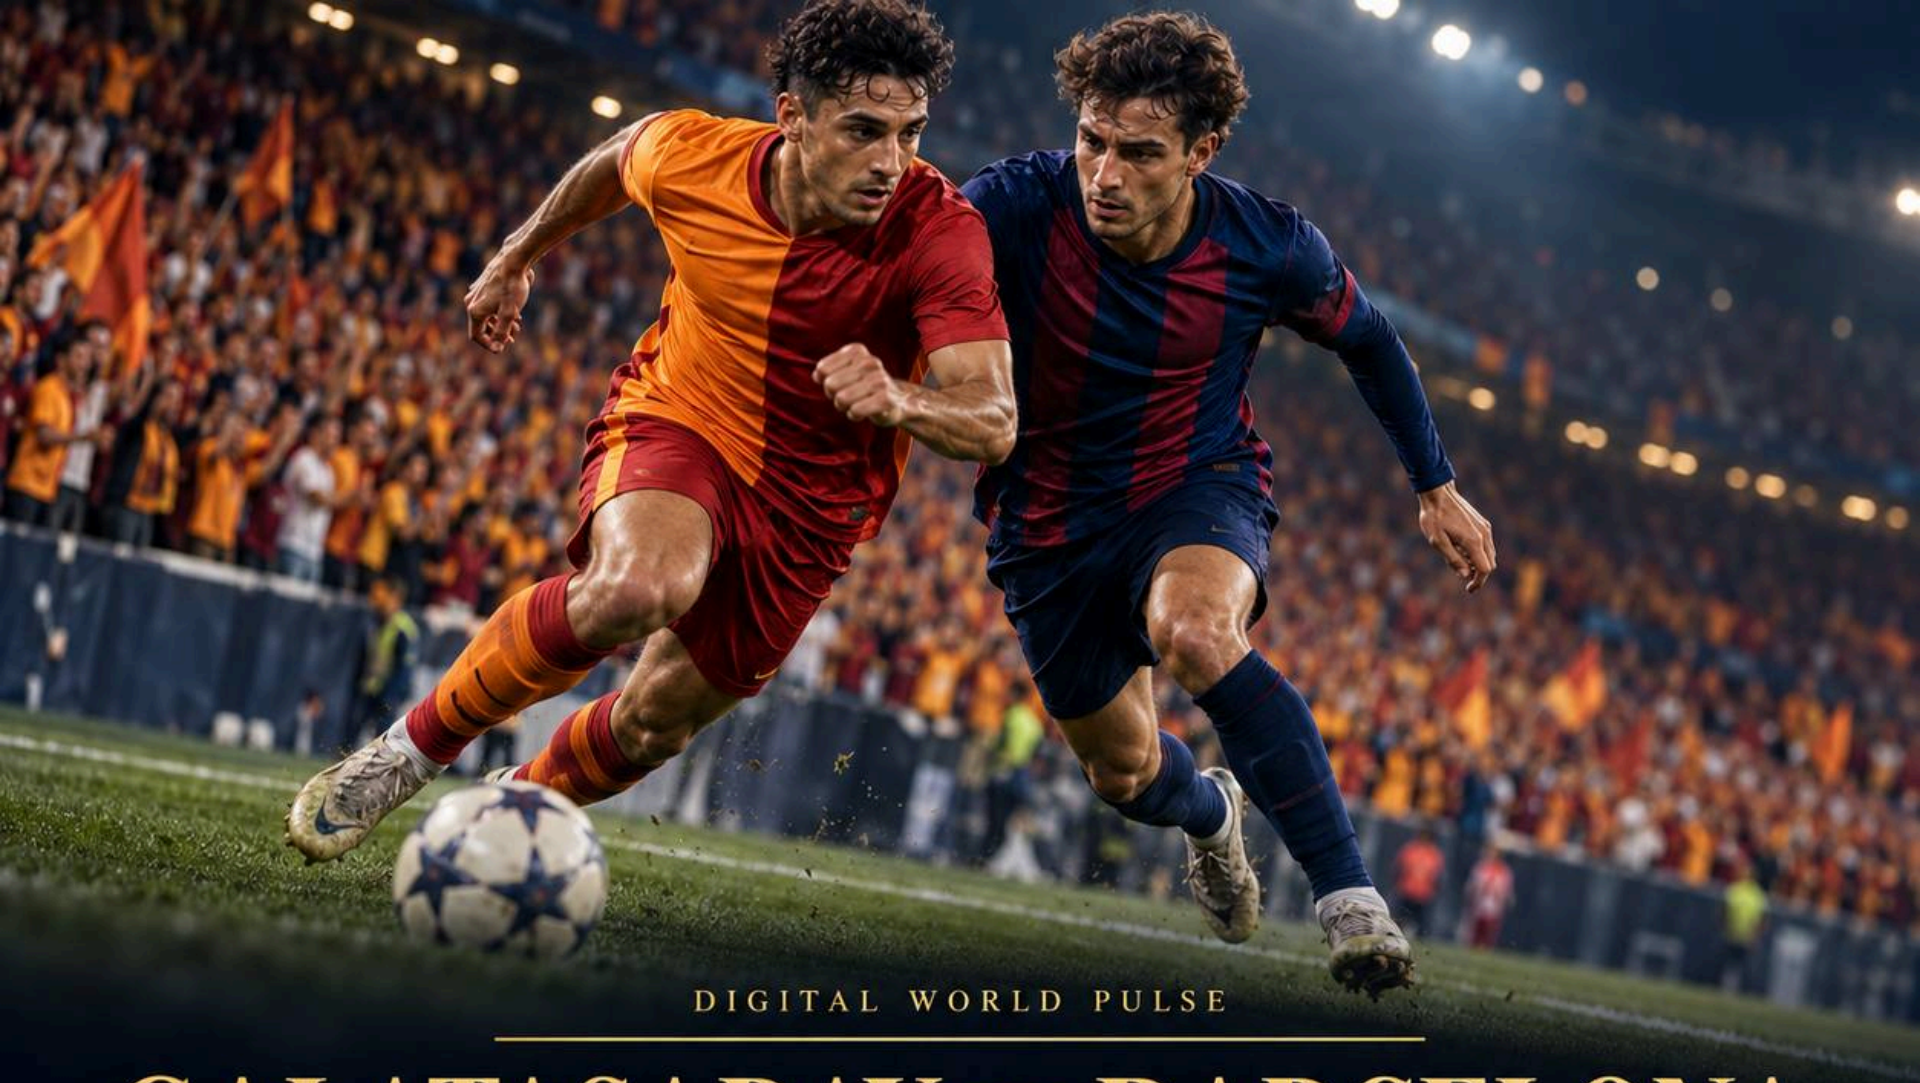
Inter is the editorial home selection. Track runs beyond the first defensive line and the timing of deliveries from wide areas. Brugge can make the contest difficult by slowing those combinations and using its outlets efficiently. The projected margin assumes Inter converts sustained pressure into clear chances.

EDITORIAL PICK: Inter

PROJECTED SCORE:

Inter 2 : 0 Club Brugge

Score estimate, not a result.



DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

GALATASARAY vs BARCELONA

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2026

WHAT TO WATCH

A standout atmosphere and an intriguing away test. Watch whether Galatasaray can turn home pressure into controlled attacks, and how Barcelona handles the first cchallenge after receiving possession. The away lean is narrow: losing the ball in central areas could quickly reverse the outlook.

PROJECTED SCORE: Leipzig 2 : 2 PSV Eindhoven

Score estimate, not a result.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

VIKING VS BAYERN MÜNCHEN

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

Bayern is the clear editorial lean, but the opening period still matters. Watch whether Viking can keep its defensive lines connected and retain an outlet after regaining possession. Bayern's projected margin depends on patient chance creation rather than forcing low-quality shots against a crowded box.

EDITORIAL PICK: Bayern München

PROJECTED SCORE: Viking 0 : 3 Bayern München

Score estimate, not a result.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

VILLARREAL vs NAPOLI

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

This is a useful alternative to Tuesday's headline fixtures. Watch how each side works the space between midfield and defense, and whether wide attacks produce dangerous cutbacks. The editorial call is level, with finishing and the quality of second-half changes likely to separate two competing plans.

EDITORIAL PICK: Draw

PROJECTED SCORE:
Villarreal 1 : 1 Napoli
Score estimate, not a result.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

FEYENOORD VS COMO

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2026

WHAT TO WATCH

Wednesday begins with an appealing home-versus-away test. Watch whether Feyenoord can sustain pressure without leaving the center exposed, and whether Como can progress beyond the first challenge. The home lean is slight; clean buildup and composure on the final pass could change the balance.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

LASK vs LIVERPOOL

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2026

KICKOFF: 18:45 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

Liverpool is the editorial away choice. Watch LASK's ability to defend the penalty area while keeping a route out after recoveries. The visitors' projected win depends on turning territorial control into high-quality chances and preventing the hosts from gaining momentum through attacking restarts.

EDITORIAL PICK: Liverpool

PROJECTED SCORE:

LASK 0 : 2 Liverpool

Score estimate, not a result.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

ROMA VS REAL MADRID

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

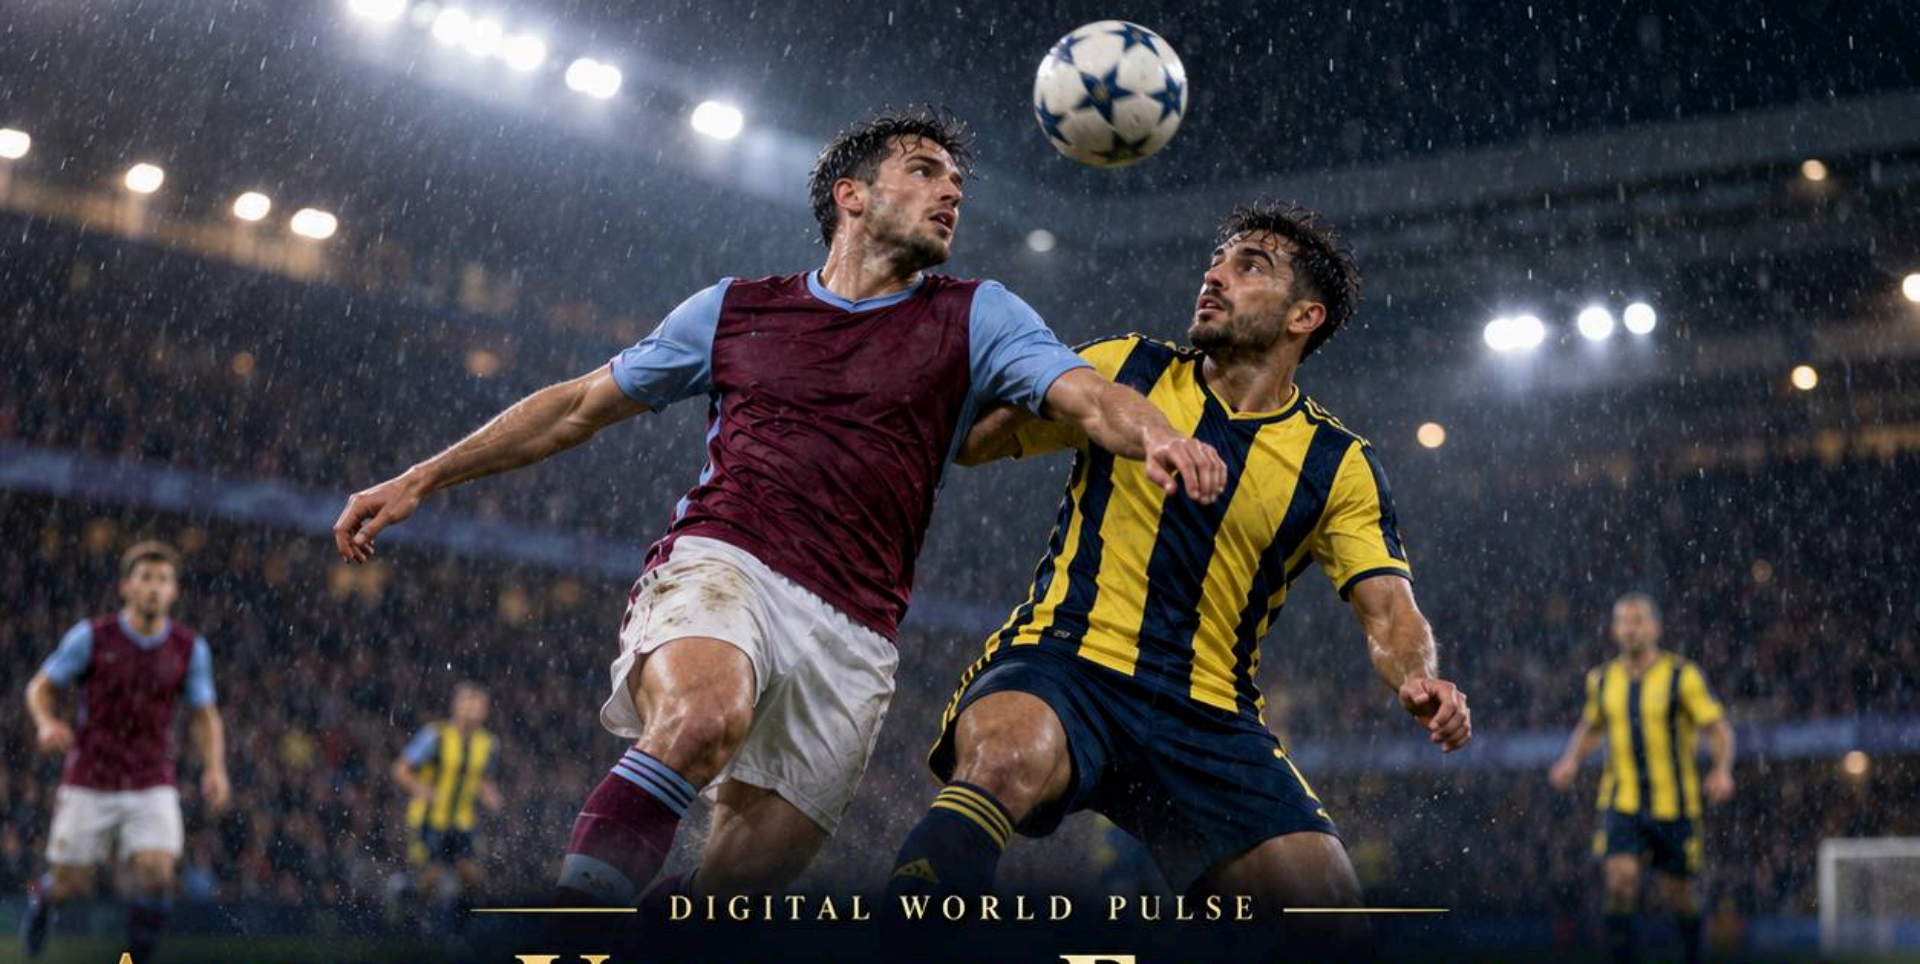
One of Wednesday's headline games. Watch Roma's defensive spacing and the timing of forward runs when Madrid advances possession. The away lean stays within one goal because home pressure, set pieces and a well-timed change from the bench could reshape a tight contest.

EDITORIAL PICK: Real Madrid

PROJECTED SCORE:

Roma 1 : 2 Real Madrid

Score estimate, not a result.



DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

Aston Villa vs Fenerbahçe

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

Score estimate, not a result.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

SHAKHTAR DONETSK VS AEK ATHENS

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

Watch the quality of Shakhtar's passing into advanced areas and AEK's response when possession changes. The editorial selection favors Shakhtar narrowly. AEK's path to a different outcome is to protect the central channels and make the first pass after a recovery a useful one.

EDITORIAL PICK: Shakhtar Donetsk

PROJECTED SCORE: Shakhtar Donetsk 2 : 1 AEK Athens

Score estimate, not a result.

DIGITAL WORLD PULSE

BODØ/GLIMT VS BORUSSIA DORTMUND

WHAT TO WATCH

This away assignment deserves attention. Watch whether Bodø/Glimt can maintain pressure after losing the ball and how Dortmund uses the space beyond the first challenge. The editorial away edge is modest; long spells of home pressure could make the projected result difficult to sustain.

EDITORIAL PICK: Borussia Dortmund

PROJECTED SCORE: Bodø/Glimt 1 : 2 Borussia Dortmund

Score estimate, not a result.

MANCHESTER CITY VS PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

The editorial centerpiece of Matchday 2. Watch the pressure on the ball carrier, the escape pass and the space left behind advancing playerrs. The projected draw anticipates chances at both ends. Control without clear shots will matter less than the quality of the final action.

REAL BETIS VS PORTO

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2026

KICKOFF: 21:00 • UEFA published time

WHAT TO WATCH

EDITORIAL PICK: Stuttgart

PROJECTED SCORE:

Slovan Bratislava 1 : 2 Stuttgart

Score estimate, not a result.
