PREDICTION
ST. LOUIS CITY WIN

PROJECTED SCORE
2 - 1

KEY MATCHUP

St. Louis City's attacking style and home support give them an edge in this match. Toronto FC have struggled defensively on the road, which could be a problem against St. Louis' dynamic frontline.

St. Louis City have been solid at Citypark, creating plenty of chances and maintaining high pressure. Toronto FC can be dangerous on the counter, but their inconsistency defensively makes it difficult to see them getting a positive result here.

BETTING INSIGHT

St. Louis City have a strong home record and should control possession. A home win looks the most likely outcome, with over 2.5 goals also being a solid option given both teams' attacking tendencies.
